THE CZAR'S TRAVELS.

Warsaw in a Turmoil Over the Visit of Royalty-The Czarina Panic Strickeu-Over

WARSAW, Sept. 10.-The ball last night in ionor of the royal party was a grand affair. As many as 700 persons were invited. The czar and czarina and the grand dukes arrived at the ball amid salutes and fireworks, and walked through the hall, bowing to the right and the left. The czar conversed at consider-able length with the Polish nobles, who were present. The czarina opened the ball with Gen. Gourko, and afterward the Polish and present. The ccarrins opened the ball wind Gen. Gourko, and afterward the Folish and Russian ladies were presented to her majesty. The supper table was decorated with 8,000 roses. The city was more brilliantly illuminated than at any time before. The bridge over the Vistula was festioned with lights, and the river was crowded with boats, brilliant with lights of many colors. The palsee was one blaze of light. The evening passed away without the least disorder. The consuls general of Great Britain, France, Germany, and Austria have invited the caar to a banquet.

The cear and carrina to-day inspected several hospitals and chools. Their majestics laid the foundation this aftermoon of a new wing of the Red Cross hospital. This evening the caar and party proceeded to Wilna, where they will attend the military maneuvers.

The Duerraik (official journal) publishes a judgment, which has been approved by the caar, condemning to perpetual exile in Siberia the Baron Renne, colonel of the 18th regiment of dragoois; Col. Somarschi, of the same regiment, and Col. Sanatew, of the lish nergiment of the collection of the infantry, who have been convicted of being members of a secret society. Numerous subofficers and privates of Cols. Renne and Sanatew's regiments were also sentenced to transportation, but their names are not published.

bourgeoise have managed to present to the imperor a potition. The case at first was visibly startled, ordered his carriage to stop, and promised to help the suppliant. The latter, however, was made a prisener.

There have been a thousand arrests in connection with the visit of the czar and his party. To-night the czar drove to the theater insognito. The carriage was blocked in its passage by two tram cars and the czarina became frightened. The czar provented her from lumping out of the czarina car wheels and was unrecognized. Several polish noblewomen did not attend the czarina's reception. Only officers and the wives of officials were present. Of the 800 persons who were invited to the ball given in the czar's honer by Gen. Gourko, only 400 were accepted. The nobility and bourgeoise were absent.

A nihilist manifesto has been liberally circulated throughout the city.

The Republical Francisco further states that if the cabinet, at its meeting on Saturday next, declares war with China, France will announce the blockade of all Chinese ports.

Official journals are silent this morning regarding the reported intention of the government to declare war against China. Admiral Peyron, minister of marine, favors it. Several powerful organs insist on a vigorous campaign. Fifty thousand troops are ready for the cost.

Lewiston, ME., Sept. 10.—The Journal has returns from 429 towns showing the following: Robie, 77,155; Redman, 56,396; scattering, 3,596. The remaining towns voted in 1822 as follows: Robie, 2,429; Plaisted, 2,596; scattering, 14. The republican majority so far as heard from is 17,938, which will probably be increased slightly. The total vote so far reported is 137,007, which will be increased to over 142,596, the largest ever given in Maine, Nearly full returns of the congressional vote of this district give Dingley (rep.) 20,831, Hastings (den.) 14,750, scattering 2,047. Dingley's majority is 3,754.

Accusta, ME., Sept. 10.—The following dispatch was forwarded from hereto-day:

HON. JOHN A. LOGAN, Chicago—Returns from remote sections of the state increase the majority beyond all expectations. In 388 towns the republican majority over Redman exceeds 18,000, and the prospect is that with complete returns the majority may reach 19,009, and possibly be the largest ever given in the history of the republican party in Maine, with two exceptions at the close of the war. The latest returns show that the republicans have carried every county in the state senate. The magnitude of the republican vote is a surprise to both parties, and shows that a large number of democrats joined our ranks.

WALERS BLAINE.

Cleveland Has a Handshake. Binghamton, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Gov. Cleve-land, accompanied-by his secretary, stopped over here this morning while on route from Geneva to Albany. In anticipation of his visit to the common council, it made arrangements for a public reception. Mayor Thayer appointed a committee of prominent citizens, republicans and democrats, to assist the council in receiving his excellency. This distinguished guest arrived at 11.38, several hundred people being assembled at the depot to greet him. The governor, with Congressman Springer, of Illinois: Col. Lamont, and the adermanic and citizens' committee immediately took carriages in waiting, escorted by the City Guard band, sich battery, and 20th separate company, proceeded to the Hotel Bennett. The residences and stores along the streets traversed were profusely and gally decorated with flags and bunting.

Arriving at the hotel, the governor and party proceeded to the office, where the citisens were received. Nearly an hour was occupied in handshaking. Previous to the opening of the doors of the hotel a motly crowd surged before the building, but there was no demonstration. The only enthusiasm manifested was at the depot, where a few cheers were given. Some of the citizens expressed dissatisfaction that the governor did not make any remarks, but this was impossible owing to his short stay in the city. Gov, Cleveland left for Albany at 1. o'clock. RAN AWAY WITH A COACHMAN The Daughter of Jay Gould's Confidential Mar

New York, Sept. 10.—Mr. Glovani P. Morosini was for many years Mr. Jay Gould's private secretary. He is now a junior member of the firm of W. E. Connor & Co., Mr. Gould's brokers; is still Mr. Gould's confimember of the firm of W. E. Connor & Co., Mr. Gould's brokers; is still Mr. Gould's confidential man, and lives in an elegant house up in Yonkers. He has, or had, a very pretty daughter, Miss Victoria, who has a very fair complexion, blond hair, and very bright blue eyes. Mr. Morosini also had a conclinan, one Ernest J. Schelling by name, also of fair complexion, with brown eyes and light side whiseers and mustache. The daughter and coachman are about 25 years of age respectively and both are missing. They disappeared from Yonkers Tuesday evening, and the family believe they went together. The police were notified, and made diligent search in all parts of the city.

Mr. Morosini called at police headquarters early this morning, but at that time no information concerning them had been obtained, inspector Byrnes told him he had instructed the police captain in each precinct to have inquiries made of each clergyman within his district to learn whether Miss Morosini and Schelling had been married in this city. The father then went down town to his office. He seemed broken down by grief. Some hours later it was learned that the eloping couple were married here least night. They arrived together at the Grand Central denot and went direct to the residence of Rev. Mr. Hauser adjoining the German Methodist Episcopal church in East Fifty-fifth street. Asboth were of age he married them, as they requested. The groom signed his manse John Ernest Huiskung! age, 31; hirthpace, German, The bride gave her name Victoria Agnes I. Morosini; age, 32. They asked the elergyman what his fee was, and befur told $2, gave him $0. At their request Rev. Mr. Hauser sent for a carriage to take them to the pier of the Troy boats. Mr. Morosini was at his office as usual to-day, but refused to speak on the subject of the clopement. It is said that Schelling is a nobleman, but that his poverty forced him to come to this country, where he obtained employment as a waiter at Delinonico's. There, it is said, Miss Morosini became acquainted with him, and it is also stated that he obtained the stuntion of coachman with her father that he might have greater opportunities of cultivating her acquaintance. If Mr. Morosini refuses to pardon his daughter and Schelling, to whom she is now married, it is believed she will become an opera singer, as she possessor an excellent voice, and frequently expressed a desire to go on the stage. When Miss Morosini left house she took with her several thousand dollars worth of diamonds and other jewelry belonging to her.

TERRIBLE STORM IN MINNESOTA AND

Ino lowns Torn to Pieces by a Cyclone Several People Killed and Many Injured-The Full Extent of the Damage Not Yet over portions of Minnesota and Wisconsin on Tuesday evening, spreading death and desolation in its track. Only partial details of the damage done have been received, but enough is known to show that the destruction was wide-spread and the damage to property very great. At the little town of Marine Mills, Minn., and at Clear Lake, Wis., the storm had all the characteristics of a cyclone, and both are practically destroyed. At Marine Mills fifteen or twenty houses were wrecked and a number of persons injured. Nearly all the doctor from Stillwater are out there. The house of David Lyman, four miles above Stillwater, on the road to Marine, was blown down and some of the inmates injured. Only a small pertion of the storm struck Stillwater and some of the inmates injured. Only a small pertion of the storm struck Stillwater and some of the tents at the fair grounds were torn into ribbons.

of the immates injured. Only a small portion of the storm struck Stillwater and some of the tents at the fair grounds were torn into ribbons.

At Clayton, Wis., one-half of the lighter structures were blown down. The cyclene struck this place about 5 p.m., doing nearly the whole damage in fifteen minutes.

At Chippews Falls, Wis., the storm was the worst of the scason. The river is now between sixteen and seventeen feet above low water and is still rising rapidly. Competent judges look for a much higher rise. In this case the upper bridge over the dam will probably go as it is badly strained.

The storm struck Clear Lake between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and laid half the place in ruths almost instantly. Three persons were killed and many injured. The path of the storm was half a mile wide. It first struck a mile and a half north of Minneapolis, moving easterly through the town of Marine, on the St. Croix river, and thence to Clear Lake. Nothing has as yet been heard of any damage east of this point.

The scenes after the storm had passed were horrible in the extreme. Men, women, and children were running about in a perfect fremy of excluence and fear, there and there people could be seen coming out of their cellars or from under heaps of ruin. The strongest man was as a little child, for no human power could resist the terrible force. A house was taken from its foundation and turned completely around. A large barn was blown away, leaving the floor and mangers, with the horses, which had been pencefully eating their supper. A little child was taken in the arms of the temptest and kanded in the branches of a tree only slightly injured. A large frame house was completely out of sight, and not one particle of the house or contents could be found, although search for a mile was made in the track of the storm. The family had fortunately taken refuge in the cellar. Many families are left destitute.

At Work Bear Lake, Minn, the gale struck about 5 o'clock. Its track was less than a mile and a half wide. There
